Release #1:

Today at 1:00 p.m. the Garden City Police Department will unveil its updated Web page. Several changes have been made to the page; most noticeable will be the appearance. In addition to the changes in layout, the new Web page includes additional resources for the community and an extensive look at the department's history.

When the changes take affect, we will also be using a new domain name. Our new domain name will be www.gcpolice.org. We hope this change will make our Web site more accessible and easy to remember.
