December 15, 2011

Release #1:

The Garden City Police Department will host its annual Citizens' Police Academy beginning February 7, 2012. The academy consists of ten sessions that will be held on Tuesdays from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m.

The Citizens' Police Academy is a program of citizens and law enforcement working together to make Garden City and Finney County a better and safer place to live. The ultimate goal of the program is to enhance the working relationship and communication between members of the community and law enforcement officers from the Garden City Police Department.

During the academy, officers from the Garden City Police Department will provide information on subjects such as: GCPD Hiring Process, Crime Scene Investigation, School Resource Officer, Police K-9, Communications, Surveillance, Gangs, DUI's, S.W.A.T., Police Motorcycle Operations, Firearms, Defensive Tactics, and much more. There will be demonstrations of some activities and some classes will include hands on training.

Registration forms are available at the Garden City Police Department (304 N. Ninth Street, Garden City, KS) during normal business hours, and online at www.gcpolice.org. The deadline to register is January 23, 2012.
