MEDIA RELEASE

By Sergeant Michael Reagle
March 3, 2010

Release #1:

On March 2, 2010 the Garden City/Finney County Drug Task Force and the Kansas Bureau of Investigation culminated an approximate week long drug trafficking investigation with the arrests of Deaunta Anderson-McAlister (19-years-old, of 611 Campus Dr., Garden City, KS) and Lee Vaughn Morris (19-years-old, of 611 Campus Dr., Garden City, KS) in the 2200 block of E. Business 50. In addition to the arrests, officers served a search warrant at 2212 Heritage Ave. #1 at 2:15 p.m. Inside the residence, officers located 312.2 grams of marijuana and items of paraphernalia consistent with the use and distribution of illegal drugs.

Deaunta Anderson-McAlister was lodged in the Finney County Jail on allegations of (2) counts of sale of marijuana, sale of psilocybin mushrooms, (2) counts of conspiracy to distribute marijuana, conspiracy to distribute psilocybin mushrooms, and (3) counts of use of a telecommunication device to arrange drug transactions.

Lee Vaughn Morris was lodged in the Finney County Jail on allegations of (2) counts of sale of marijuana, (2) counts of conspiracy to distribute marijuana, possession of marijuana with the intent to distribute, no Kansas drug tax stamp, and felony possession of drug paraphernalia.
